

The wait is over: 2023 EuroLegend Cup Grand Final at the Misano World Circuit Marco Simoncelli 11 and 12 November 2023

The first EuroLegend Cup ends in Misano:
the standings don't allow predictions; all drivers ready to win.

On Saturday, the regular season concludes and on Sunday, the grand final is held, with double points!

We left at Most with the show of the EuroLegend races in the heart and with a truly changing overall standings. The few points of difference in the first places of the standings make the final event unmissable: Naska, Gaggianesi, Giussani and Messina, in the first four positions, will certainly be busy not losing their advantage and playing for the title. But Maselli, Cappelli, Watteyne, Bollini and Verdi will be protagonists: the double score in the final puts all the drivers back in the game.

EuroLegend Cup in Misano is part of the final event of FX Racing Weekend, full of events and championships. On Friday 9/11 there will be free practice and qualifying at 4.10pm; on Saturday 10/11 EuroLegend Cup will take to the track three times at the end of the regular season: at 8.55am, 2.30pm and 4.05pm. Starting from this point, the drivers will be able to advance to the grand finale on Sunday with double points in two rounds at 9.30 am and 3.35 pm. Congratulations to all drivers and good luck: we'll be back on track and on the EuroLegend Cup 2023 channels for the end of a season filled with excitement and adrenaline, and never predictable.

We're waiting for you at the EuroLegend Cup 2023 finals!
